Contributions are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income-tax purposes. Federal law requires us to report the name, address, occupation, and employer of any contributor who gives more than $200 in an election cycle. For the primary election an individual may give up to $2,400 and spouses may contribute $2,400 each for the total of $4,800. Contributions from corporations, labor unions, federal-government contractors, national banks, and foreign nationals without permanent residency status are prohibited.

By making this contribution, you confirm that the following statements are true and accurate:

- You are a citizen or permanent resident in the United States.
- The funds you are contributing are your own personal funds and not those of another person.
- Your contribution is not from the general treasury funds of a corporation, labor organization, or national bank.
- You are not a federal contractor.
- You are not a foreign national who lacks permanent resident status in the United States.
- You are at least 18 years of age.
